G. J. Schmeling
Dearest friend

I am so uneasy at not having You pay'd my duty since yesterday morning and therefore have so heartily damn'd and curs'd the many troublesome lets, that hinder'd me to have this satisfaction, that I beg Your leave to be at Yours with a Coach at two quarters after three, and to make a walk with You.
Give a Yes or No to the bearer of this.
The letter would afflict to the heart

Your

most affectionate humble servant
