Sir,

I must beg Pardon for not answering Your letter sooner; which I would not have fail'd to have done, had it not been for the hopes of seeing You my-self this Summer in Cassel, which now I must give up, for there is no likelyhood of my coming this Year. Thus I must Comfort myself with the hopes of having that Pleasure next Summer. I am very much Rejoiced to hear that all my friends are well, and that I'm still in their kind Remembrens. Pray make my Compliment to them all, and tell them how much I loos being depriv'd of their Company. Likewise I rejoice very much to hear, that You are so happy established, and I wish you may like that Town better than You did Hannover. When You Write to Your Sister make my Compliment to her, and Recomend me to her kind Remembrance and friendship and tell her how
