

StA Br 364

1623, H Street,
Washington D.C. 30. May. 1877.

Dear Mr Grimm.

your splendid and most welcome New Year's present reached me safely. I have read every word of the volumes with delight and instruction. So careful & complete ~~an analysis~~ and history of a great man's mind & affections, I have never met with. for nearly sixty years I have been familiar with Goethe; and have read repeatedly those of his writings which pleased me most; you give me new views, and teach