

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is arranged in approximately 15 lines, starting with a large initial letter 'H'. The script is dense and characteristic of early modern German handwriting.

Handwritten title or section header, possibly reading 'Herrn ...'. It is written in a larger, more formal hand than the main text.

Handwritten text block below the title, continuing the document's content. It begins with a large initial 'W' and contains several lines of text in the same cursive script.

Vertical text on the left margin, possibly a library or archival label, partially legible as 'Ortswen und ...'.

Vertical text on the left margin, possibly a library or archival label, partially legible as '...'