How much I have missed you and how often may but wishes have been yours since you have been wanderers! I cannot tell you therefore you may imagine how glad I was to get them and little matters in your cover letter from which I can fancy you whole and being; though you both longed for the oppression classes and I thank you and have been more off here where we have an unreasonably mild, though changeable and very unhealthy winter. Never had the Doctor more to do and never more were Doctor ill. He had one share of illness, principally in his long nervous fever which kept him out of school for three months and most
