How much I have missed you and how often my last wishes have been granted since you have been wanderers. I cannot tell you though you may imagine how glad I was to get these two little packages in your letter from which I can fancy you whole and being. though you both enjoyed your unhappy illness and I think you would have been worse off here where we have an unhealthy winter. never had the Doctors Accordingly prevented from making his Abstinent career, which was a great disappointment to him, but his money made us all so happy that we did not care about it. There has just no ball yet, but we have had some little parties at home and yesterday a lady one at which our young people and some of their young friends acted and some of the ladies' friends arranged by the

Of course Sir A. Deacon was our Mama. She is so beautiful, yes, beautiful the lobbies as Galenase. She has her Arabian horse and acting like the boke men and plain. Mama wants twice to sell your Mammon to risk some of you, but had not the right fortune to do her. How long do you stay away? I hear your second volume of Michael Angelo is quite as interesting as the first which is very read than how the old Romberg read it at Munich last summer, and never comes fear, without telling me, he camera his story there to much more than he otherwise should have done from all the information he derived from your book. I was pleased to hear from the Rev. S. A. Gregg that Frieda had left a brother and that he went to Oss funeral. The Rev. S. A. Gregg is there.

My husband lately dined with her and her ten sons as their guest, and how she was a gaiety with her. The question is, where are growing more and more interest, and parties are looking up into separate circles all having varying opinions, and all going too far. How this is to end nobody knows. Surely such a state of affairs never before existed and is likely to continue for some time until there is some coup d'état on one side or other. Have you learned Italian?

If you meet Mr. Charles Kempe, give my kindest regards. More than twenty years ago, I knew a number of persons in Rome when they may be found in this world in the best. I don’t know but I cannot expect them to remember me. If you meet a Marchese Guarnini, Marchese del Crato, or a Marchese Guarnini, Marchese del Buffalo, remember Dick Clark Ghias to them.
